On average, in 2018, the cost of holding people in federal custody was $102.60 per day per adult, or $37,449 a year.

The average cost for psychiatric treatment in a community hospital ranges from $3,616 to $8,509, depending on the type of illness being treated. A simple calculation reveals that for an adult, the cost of 35 to 83 days in prison would provide the financing of a hospitalization that would have a better chance of bringing about recovery.

PERMANENT SUPPORTED HOUSING

DESIGNED TO ASSIST RESIDENTS IN DEVELOPING COMMUNITY LIVING SKILLS, INCREASING COMMUNITY INTEGRATION AND ACHIEVING LASTING RESIDENTIAL STABILITY

The facilities are safe, secure, and affordable, located near transportation or in a mixed commercial and residential neighborhood, close to community resources and services. A house manager lives on site. The case manager provides life skills and mental health services. Resident needs are assessed, and a Housing Stability and Supportive Services Plans are created. Weekly house meetings are conducted to address shared living concerns. Our residents are expected to be involved in at least 20 hours of productive community activities and encouraged to utilize mainstream resources to become more engaged in community activities. In addition to receiving primary mental health treatment through Ventura County Behavioral Health, residents may also attend nearby programs at Turning Point's Oxnard Clubhouse for rehabilitation services or the Turning Point Foundation's Wellness Center for peer support services.
